The Pilgrim's Progress

1678

Now I further saw, that betwixt them and the gate was a river; but there was no bridge to go over, and the river was very deep.

. . . he had horror of mind, and heart-fears that he should die in that river.

. . . he was much in the troublesome thoughts of the sins that he had committed, both since and before he began to be a pilgrim.

. . . he was troubled with apparitions of hobgoblins and evil spirits.

Be of good cheer, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole.

And with that Christian brake out with a loud voice, Oh, I see him again; and he tells me, *When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee (Isaiah 43:2).

Then they both took courage, and the enemy was after that as still as a stone, until they were gone over.

From the Author's *Way of sending forth His Second Part. . . to the Lord
granting Christiana, her children, and
Mercy forgiveness.
