

Love Your Husband by Kathy Perkins

Let your fountain be blessed, and rejoice in the wife of your youth. As a loving hind and a graceful doe, Let her breasts satisfy you at all times; Be exhilarated always with her love. Proverbs 5:18-19

The root word for breast means the seat of love, and the root for exhilarated means to be enraptured so as not to stray. With these two roots in mind, the passage reads, As a warm affectionate hind and pleasant doe, let her seat of affection satisfy thee at all times (Heb. - err thou always with her love) and be thou enraptured (to keep you from straying) with her love.

Titus 2:3 word for to love your husband – Philandros – warm affectionate love. Used only once in the Bible. It is a command and a subset of the two greatest commandments.

Mark 12:28b-31 What commandment is the foremost of all? Jesus answered, "the foremost is, 'Hear, O ISRAEL! THE LORD OUR GOD IS ONE LORD; AND YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND, AND

WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH.' THE second is this, 'YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

All scripture that applies to loving others (like 1 Corinthians 13) applies to loving your husband, plus respecting and submitting to him.

The reason we need to learn how to love our husbands is so that the word of God will not be dishonored.

1 Peter 4:8-11 instructs us that, Above all, keep fervent in your love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins. Be hospitable to one another without complaint. As each one has received a special gift (being a husband or wife) employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. Whoever speaks, is to do so as one who is speaking the utterances of God; whoever serves is to do so as one who is serving by the strength which God supplies; so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.
