Reach the following statements from War for Mansoul, and answer the questions that follow.

“If Mansoul had it all to do over, thought Prywell, the answer would be so simple: just believe Shaddai.” (p.192)

3. What is at the root of all our problems? _____

“Yes, I suffer Diabolonians to dwell in your walls, O Mansoul; it is to keep thee watchful, to try thy love.” (said by Emmanuel, p.193)

4. Why doesn't God just destroy the Diabolonians?

“I do not have to love Him,” said Will. “I am free. He has always left me free to do as I please. . .I love Him because I want to.” (p.196)

5. God could have made us like robots, forced to serve and love Him. Instead He made us to be free, able to choose to love or hate Him. Why is it better to be free?
